

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION
TRANS'ORGANISATION
AUGUST, 17th, 2018

According to the GDPR law of May, 25th, 2018, the participants personal data details will be used for different purposes.

General information given during registration

The information required for your registration are those essential to treat your registration for the different races.

They include: Name / First name / Gender / Birth date / Postal address / Mobile phone number / Phone number / Email / Person to contact in case of emergency / Phone number of the person to contact in case of emergency / Licence number / Club / Worldloppet passport number/ Medical certificate

This information will be used in the following different documents, and will be only treated by the person in charge of GDPR in Trans'Organisation:

1. Start lists

They include: Name / First name / Gender / Birth date / Club / Licence / City

They are published on the website of the organization and of its timing company. They are also published on a local newspaper, which is a partner of Trans'Organisation.

The personal data will be published in ranking documents, in undetermined manner for statistics, according to the regulation.

2. Results lists

They include: Name / First name / Gender / Category / Licence / Club / Nationality / Birth Date / City / Club (included according to the needs of the different results files).

They are published on the website of the organization and of its timing company. These lists are also sent to our media and organization partners, and to the two federations, in which Trans'Organisation are affiliated (FFSki and FFAthlétisme).

The personal data will appear in the results in undetermined manner for statistics, according to the regulation.

3. Archives

The different documents are classified in our archives.

4. Pictures, broadcasting services and image rights

Each participant authorize the organization of La Transjurassienne races as well as its entitled persons/companies, such as partners and media companies to use the pictures or videos on which he/she could appear, taken during its participation to La Transjurassienne races, on all the different media including advertising documents, in the whole world and for the longer period the law, regulation and treaties authorize, even if the period is lengthened.

5. Newsletter

Your email will be used to send newsletter for different information.

Your email could be transferred to a partner, only if you accepted it during registration.

Rights of the concerned person

Each participant has the right to access and modify his/her personal information:

- Information right of the personal data gathered from the concerned person.
- Information right concerning the purposes of the treatment.
- Information right concerning the persons to which the personal data were or will be sent.
- Information right concerning the time the personal data are conserved.
- Right to modify or cancel the personal data.
- Limitation of the data treatment