Dare2Tri participates to my event, can I rent a swim suit directly on their website?

Of course! Please contact us by e-mail to make sure we have your size in stock. You can write to us at the following email address: sales@dare2tri.com including your contact details + gender, height and weight.

How do I know what size to wear?

The specialists at DARE2TRI will help to determine your wetsuit size based on your information provided by you. You can also check yourself at our guide on our website.

The suit must be put on correctly in order to judge as best as it can be the size suits you or not. Please check out this link how to put on your wetsuit correctly.

I really appreciate the combination; can I buy it?

Yes, of course, come see us directly on the Dare2Tri stand during the event.

Do you have children's sizes?

No, sorry we do not have children's sizes, but size XXS may be suitable for older children, please refer to the "Size index" tab.

Am I financially responsible for the damage suffered by the swim suit?

Dare2Tri does not take into account normal traces due to the wear of a race. However, in case of significant damage due to mishandling or dehydration of neoprene caused by the sun, then an overload will be charged.

DARE2TRI does not take the responsibility for cancelled events by the organization Triathlon Deauville, therefore no refund is possible. Regarding the organization repayment terms, please consult Terms and Conditions of the event.

DARE2TRI welcomes you at the DARE2TRI expo stand next to the registration tent.
